

Managing the Storm — Perspectives on Economic Recovery in Wisconsin and Beyond

June 22, 2009

AGENDA

8:00 a.m. to 8:25 a.m.

Registration, Networking and Continental Breakfast

8:25 a.m.

Welcoming Remarks

Anne E. Ross, Managing Partner, Foley & Lardner's Madison Office

8:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m.

Plenary Session – with introductions by David G. Walsh, Partner, Foley & Lardner LLP

Keynote: Governor James E. Doyle

Michael M. Knetter, Dean, University of Wisconsin School of Business

John J. Oros, Managing Director, J.C. Flowers & Co. LLC

Question & Answer

10:00 a.m. to 10:15 a.m.

Break

10:15 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

Concurrent Breakout Sessions

Breakout Session One - Auditorium

Changing Course: The Current State of Credit Markets

Corey A. Chambas, President and CEO, First Business Financial Services, Inc.

Timothy S. Crisp, Partner, Foley & Lardner LLP

Scott C. Lockard, Madison Market President, US Bank National Association

Thomas K. Otte, Senior Executive Advisor, Harney Management Partners

Toni Prestigiacomo, Partner, Foley & Lardner LLP

Breakout Session Two – Room 219

Ports in the Storm: The State's Response to Federal Stimulus Funding and Other Economic Development Initiatives

Raymond R. Carey, Partner, Foley & Lardner LLP

Andrew Moyer, Executive Assistant to the Secretary of the State of Wisconsin Department of Administration

Aaron D. Olver, Deputy Secretary, Wisconsin Department of Commerce

Breakout Session Three – Room 221

On the Horizon: New Developments in Tax Incentive Financing

Zach Brandon, Executive Assistant of the Wisconsin Department of Commerce

Wayman C. Lawrence, Partner, Foley & Lardner LLP

Andrew L. Nelson, Partner, Foley & Lardner LLP

Paul T. Wrycha, Partner, Foley & Lardner LLP