

This program will cover issues involved with representing US companies in their dealings with China.

The topics will include options for setting up operations in China, unique transactional issues, intellectual property, antitrust issues, and corporate/cultural considerations in doing business in and with China.

Expert panelists will also discuss the unique issues involved in representing Chinese companies in the United States.

Panelists

Stephen Y. Chow, Esq.
Burns & Levinson LLP

Henry H. Liu, Esq.
Head of China Practice -
Nixon Peabody LLP

X. Linda Ji, Esq.
Foley & Lardner, LLP

Zhicheng Pan, Esq.
Visiting Scholar,
Boston University School of Law
M&A Law Firm - Shanghai, China

Xylina Wu
Director of Business Development
China and Biotechnology - Massachusetts
Office of International Trade &
Investment

Matthew B. Lowrie, Esq.
Foley & Lardner LLP
Moderator

Sponsored by:

The Intellectual Property Law Section and the International Law Section

Specific Topics

- Options for setting up operations in China
- Unique transactional issues
- Corporate/cultural considerations in doing business in and with China
- Intellectual property & antitrust issues
- Unique issues involved in representing Chinese companies in the United States

Program Co-chairs

Saloni Bowry, Esq.
Chair, Foreign Lawyers Committee

Darren L. Braham, Esq.
Ropes & Gray, LLP

Dr. Gaytri Kachroo, Esq.
Kachroo Legal Services, P.C.

Matthew B. Lowrie, Esq.
Foley & Lardner LLP