Labor & Employment Summit

A Uniquely Different Legal Seminar

The Labor & Employment Summit is like no other employment law-and human resources-focused conference and promises not to disappoint. The full-day event will cover key areas, including an update on all the developments during these Pandemic-affected years and predictions on what they mean longer term for business, with sessions also exploring workplace investigations, trade secrets, privacy issues, legal risk and litigation strategy, and even an exploration of anti-trust concerns inserting with employment-related considerations. The Summit will feature a series of fast-paced sessions with dynamic speakers and a mix of musical inspiration to keep guests on their toes.
