Jennifer Luther strives to help her clients reach practical and efficient solutions when disputes arise. Her strong analytical skills and good judgment enable her to guide clients to resolve litigation through negotiated settlements where possible, or when necessary, take them all the way through trial.

Jennifer is a Senior Counsel in the firm's Commercial Litigation practice group and a secondary member of the Construction and Labor & Employment practice groups. Jennifer's practice is focused on helping businesses and individuals navigate a wide range of complex commercial disputes.

Jennifer has experience litigating an extensive spectrum of commercial disputes in both state and federal court, with specific expertise in construction litigation, insurance coverage issues, construction liens, real property disputes, trade secrets, tortious interference with contract, restrictive covenants, as well as a vast array of other types of commercial contract disputes.

Construction Litigation

Jennifer's construction litigation experience includes:

- Breach of Construction Contract
- Negligence
- Construction Defects
- Lien Enforcement and Defense
- Residential and Commercial Properties
- Insurance Coverage

Commercial Litigation

Jennifer's commercial litigation practice spans many disputes, including:

- Employment
- Insurance Coverage
- Shareholder Disputes
- Trade Secrets
- Unfair Competition
- Commercial Contract Disputes
- Premises Liability

Employment Litigation

Jennifer's employment litigation experience includes:

- Restrictive Covenants
- Trade Secret Misappropriation
- Breach of Fiduciary Duty
- Tortious Interference with Contract
- Breach of Employment Agreement
- Temporary Restraining Orders and Preliminary Injunctions

Jennifer Luther has years of experience trying complex commercial cases, including jury trials and injunction hearings in state and federal court. She has been first and second chair at trials, injunction hearings, and evidentiary hearings, where she has conducted opening and close statements, taken direct and cross examinations of key fact and expert witnesses, argued contentious pre-trial matters, including motions in limine, objections to exhibits, motions to strike witnesses, and disputes over deposition designations. Jennifer second-chaired a jury trial on a tortious interference with contract claim, where her trial team successfully prevailed on a motion for a directed verdict on behalf of her client after seven long days of witness testimony. Notably, in that same case, Jennifer and her trial team had previously defeated eight of plaintiffs' nine claims, including a misappropriation of trade secrets claim, on summary judgment before the case even went to trial, which was key to her team's overall strategy of narrowing the issues for trial and obtaining critical evidentiary rulings. Jennifer's broad trial experience also includes cases involving construction defects, contractual disputes, negligence, premises liability, and constitutional claims. Jennifer also has experience seeking temporary restraining orders and permanent injunctive relief for clients, which is often done on an expedited basis. Jennifer's accolades include being honored as a "Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch Recognition in Commercial Litigation" and "Wisconsin Super Lawyers – Rising Star" for multiple years in a row.
