

Sheridan A. Organ

Associate

sheridan.organ@foley.com

Boston

617.342.4098

Sheridan Organ is a member of the Health Care Practice. While attaining her master's in public health, Sheridan worked as a Public Health Law Fellow at the Center for Disease Control and Prevention with a placement at the NYC Department of Health and Mental Hygiene and as a teaching fellow at Boston University.

During law school, Sheridan was selected for the Mayo-Foley Health Law Fellowship, consisting of summer internships with the Mayo Clinic Legal Department in Rochester, Minnesota and Foley's Boston office. During this time, she assisted attorneys at both the Mayo Clinic and Foley with a broad range of regulatory compliance and transactional matters. While in law school, Sheridan also interned at Medical Legal Partnerships Boston where she supported law and policy consultants by conducting legal research for interdisciplinary communities of care teams.

Presentations and Publications

- Co-author, "Massachusetts: New Year, New Law — Governor Signs "An Act enhancing the market review process" (House Bill No. 5159)," Health Care Law Today (January 14, 2025)

Practice Areas

- Corporate
- Health Care

Education

- Boston University (M.P.H., 2024)
 - Public Health
- Boston University (J.D., magna cum laude, 2023)
 - Managing Editor, American Journal of Law & Medicine
- McGill University (B.Sc., honors, 2018)

- Global Food Security

Admissions

- Massachusetts