Miami

Leslie Smith is a partner with Foley & Lardner LLP. Leslie litigates a range of commercial matters at both the trial and appellate levels in both federal and state courts. Her franchising and distribution practice provides clients with counseling and litigation services, from initial negotiations through resolution, including mediation, arbitration and trial. Leslie has represented franchisors and distributors in a variety of commercial disputes involving trademarks, trade secrets, covenants not to compete and vicarious liability claims. She is a member of the Distribution & Franchise Practice and the former managing partner of the Miami office.

Representative Experience

- Obtaining a favorable verdict for a hospitality franchisor client on its counterclaim for breach of a franchise agreement preceded by the entry of summary judgment in favor of the franchisor, its parent company and two former employees on the franchisee's complaint alleging RICO violations. The counterclaim was tried non-jury after the court granted our clients' motion to strike jury demand
- Obtaining a summary judgment on a franchisor's claims for post termination trademark infringement and counterfeiting against its former franchisee
- Obtaining injunctive relief on a distributor's claims against a former employee for misappropriation of trade secrets and violations of a covenant not to compete
- Successfully defending a franchisor client from a competitor's motion for injunctive relief arising out of claims of false advertising
- Obtaining a summary judgment for a franchisor in a wrongful death action involving Florida's Dram Shop law
- Obtaining a preliminary injunction against a former employee of a logistics client for violation of the employee's covenant not to compete who claimed the covenant to be unenforceable on the grounds of workplace harassment

- Winning preliminary injunctions on behalf of many franchisor clients to prevent former franchisee's unauthorized use of the franchisor's registered trademarks
