

Aleyda P. Castro

Associate

acastro@foley.com

New York

212.338.3499

Aleyda Castro is a member of the Commercial Litigation Practice Group. She began her career at Foley as a summer associate.

While in law school, Aleyda was a Legal Intern at the Harvard Immigration and Refugee Clinical Program and a Research Assistant at UCLA's Center for Immigration Law and Policy. In addition, Aleyda was a Professional Mentor for the UCLA Law Fellows Program at the Academic Outreach Resource Center where she helped pre-law students prepare their law school applications.

Aleyda is a fluent Spanish speaker.

Practice Areas

- Commercial Litigation
- Litigation

Education

- UCLA School of Law (J.D., 2023)
 - UCLA Law Fellows Program, Mentor
 - Latinx Law Student Association, Academic Support Co-Chair
 - UCLA Latinx Pre-Law Association's Advancing Latinx in Law Mentorship Program, Mentor
 - UCLA Law's El Centro Re-Entry Legal Clinic, Volunteer
 - First Generation Law Student's Association, Member
- Wesleyan University (B.A., magna cum laude, 2018)
 - Major: American Studies with a Concentration on Racial and Ethnic Studies

Admissions

- New York