

Jacqueline Beveridge

Associate

jbeveridge@foley.com

Washington, D.C.

202.295.4435

Jacqueline Beveridge works in our Commercial Litigation Practice Group. Her experience includes working as an intern in the Human Trafficking Unit of the Office of the District Attorney, 20th Judicial District, in Nashville, TN. Jacqueline also worked as a summer judicial intern with Justice Thomas Zugibe in the Supreme Court of New York, County of Rockland, New City.

Awards and Recognition

- Mondaq Thought Leadership Award for Antitrust/Competition Law (Spring 2025)

Practice Areas

- Commercial Litigation
- Litigation

Education

- Vanderbilt University Law School (J.D., 2023)
 - Completed, Vanderbilt's Pro Bono Pledge – over 75 hours of pro bono work and community service
 - Associate Problem Editor, Moot Court
 - Member, Phi Delta Phi
 - Best Oralist Award, 2022 Bass, Berry & Sims Moot Court Competition
- Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, (M.S., 2020)
 - International Crimes, Conflict, and Criminology
- Georgetown University, Walsh School of Foreign Service (B.S.F.S., cum laude, 2019)

Admissions

- Washington, D.C.
- Maryland