

Alicia D'Alba Dorner

Partner

adorner@foley.com

Boston

617.502.3213

New York

Alicia Dorner represents private and public companies in a broad range of transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, equity financings, joint ventures, and other corporate transactions. She represents emerging companies throughout their lifecycles on transactions, strategic partnerships, reorganizations, and sale transactions, both domestic and cross-border alike.

Alicia also represents investors in the technology, health care, life sciences, and other innovative industries. She regularly acts as general outside counsel for private and venture-backed companies in a wide array of fields. Alicia is a senior counsel in our Venture & Growth Capital and Emerging Company Practices Groups. She is a member of the firm's Innovative Technology and Health Care & Life Sciences Sectors. She also serves on firm's Boston Chapter Women's Network.

Representative Experience

- Represented NEA as Lead Investor in a US$12m Series A Round for College Social Media App Fizz.
- Represented Nigerian Investment App Bamboo in a US$15m Series A Financing.
- Represented NEA and Cortical Ventures as Lead Investors in US$16m Series A Financing of SeMi Technologies.
- Represented AUA Private Equity in Gourmet Culinary Holdings Investment.

Awards and Recognition

- Recognized, Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch – Mergers and Acquisitions Law (2024)

Affiliations

- Member, Boston Bar Association

Presentations and Publications

- Moderator, “Breaking Barriers and Sealing Deals: How Women Will Win in Venture Capital” (November 17, 2022)
- Co-author, “Post-COVID M&A Transactions Guidebook,” Foley’s Coronavirus Resource Center: Back to Business (October 8, 2020)

Sectors

- Fashion, Apparel & Beauty
- Health Care & Life Sciences
- Racial Justice & Equity

Practice Areas

- Corporate
- Transactions
- Venture & Growth Capital

Education

- Tulane Law School (J.D., 2012)
 - Dean’s Scholarship
 - Moot Court Board
 - Member, Student Bar Association
- Boston University School of Management (B.S., cum laude, 2009)
 - Business Administration

Admissions

- Massachusetts
- New York