

Miguel Angel Hernandez Romo Valencia

Partner

mhernandezromo@foley.com

Miguel Hernández Romo Valencia is a bilingual litigation attorney focusing his practice on complex litigation in civil, commercial, professional responsibility, family litigation, medical malpractice, maritime law, and insurance sectors. He regularly handles international arbitration and bankruptcy proceedings as well. Miguel serves as the Mexico City office chair for the firm's Litigation Department.

With a deep understanding of a wide variety of complex litigation issues, some of Miguel's most recent matters include clients with private, nonprofit, and publicly held companies in the medical, oil and gas, aerospace, insurance, manufacturing, maritime, and financial sectors.

Miguel is an avid author of articles related to Mexican procedural law. Some of his articles include several publications regarding the Mexican procedural system as well as an insurance article in the Universidad Nacional Autonoma de Mexico Law Journal of Private Law. He has also co-authored the Mexican Chapter for Arbitration and Domestic Litigation in the Practical Law Company publication of Cross-border Handbooks.

Awards and Recognition

- Chambers & Partners Latin America, Litigation (2014)
- Chambers & Partners Global, Dispute Resolution
- Selected for inclusion in The Best Lawyers® in Mexico (2020-2025)

Community Involvement

- Professor, Universidad Iberoamericana
 - Introduction to the Mexican Legal System
 - Procedural Law

Languages

- Spanish

- English

Practice Areas

- Commercial Litigation
- Litigation

Education

- The University of Texas, Austin (LL.M., 1994)
- Escuela Libre de Derecho (J.D., with distinction, 1992)