FOLEY & LARDNER LLP

Shana Feuling Weber

Of Counsel

sfweber@foley.com

Madison
608.258.4202

Shana Feuling Weber is of counsel with Foley & Lardner LLP. Shana has experience practicing commercial real estate and corporate law in Wisconsin including serving as general counsel for a private commercial real estate company and for a large public real estate investment trust.

Before joining Foley, Shana was general counsel for the U.S. region of Artis REIT, and was responsible for corporate and real estate legal matters for the company. Previously, Shana was a chief legal officer and secretary at Vanta Commercial Properties (T. Wall Properties) in Madison, a real estate development consultant for private development and a commercial broker at a national brokerage firm, as well as a commercial real estate attorney at a business law firm in Madison.

Affiliations

- Member, State Bar of Wisconsin

Presentations and Publications

- Co-author, “Commercial Real Estate Transactions in Wisconsin,” State Bar of Wisconsin (2010)
- Contributor, “State-By-State Guide to Commercial Real Estate Leases,” Wolters Kluwer (Originally published 2004)

Thought Leadership

Shana has been a guest lecturer at the University of Wisconsin Law School and an instructor of continuing education for the Wisconsin Realtors Association.

Professional Licenses

- Real Estate Broker, Wisconsin

Sectors

- Fashion, Apparel & Beauty

Practice Areas

- Corporate
- Real Estate

Education

- University of Wisconsin Law School (J.D., cum laude, 2005)
- University of Wisconsin – Madison (B.B.A., with highest distinction, 2002)
    - Accounting
    - Successfully passed Certified Public Accounting exam

Admissions

- Wisconsin