

Stephen A. Bent

Partner/Retired

Stephen A. Bent, a retired partner with Foley & Lardner LLP, was a member of the Chemical, Biotechnology & Pharmaceutical Practice and the Health Care and Nanotechnology Industry Teams. He is the founder and a former co-chair of the Life Sciences Industry Team. Stephen counseled clients on intellectual property disputes and the legal issues associated with pharmaceutical and biotechnology asset valuation and management, venture capital, licensing and technology transfer, and corporate acquisitions. He was a principal in the firm's China initiative.

Awards and Recognition

The Practical Law Company's Cross Border Life Sciences Handbook has ranked Mr. Bent as one of the top five U.S. life sciences attorneys in the IP category annually since 2004. Since 2007, he also has been selected annually by his peers for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America® for the areas of biotechnology and patent law. Mr. Bent has also been Peer Review Rated as AV® Preeminent™, the highest performance rating in Martindale-Hubbell's peer review rating system. In 2012 – 2014, he was recognized by the Legal 500 for his work in patent prosecution and in 2013 – 2015, he was selected for inclusion in the Washington, D.C. Super Lawyers® lists for his work in intellectual property and health care.

Thought Leadership

Mr. Bent has developed an international reputation in biotechnology intellectual property law, with a number of publications to his credit in both scientific and legal journals.

Education

- George Washington University Law School (J.D., with high honors, 1981)
- University of Connecticut (M.S., 1976)

- Earlham College (B.S., biology)