Brent Bowman advises health care clients on a wide range of strategic matters, including mergers, acquisitions, dispositions, joint ventures and securities offerings. He works closely with health care providers to understand their business needs and provides practical solutions that align with industry standards.

Brent has experience representing diverse clients, including health care systems and manufacturing companies, in matters such as mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, corporate governance, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) compliance, private and public securities offerings, venture capital financing and general corporate matters. He has a proven track record in helping clients navigate complex capital-raising transactions and other strategic initiatives.

In the health care sector, Brent has represented large health care systems in the acquisition and divestiture of facilities, physician practices, and outpatient centers, such as radiation oncology centers, ambulatory surgery centers, and diagnostic imaging facilities. He also has extensive experience in establishing joint ventures with for profit and non-profit health systems, physicians, and physician groups.
