

Audrey Johnson

Special Counsel

audrey.johnson@foley.com

Milwaukee

414.297.5355

Audrey Johnson is a seasoned attorney who, prior to coming to Foley, advised clients in mergers and acquisitions (M&A), private equity transactions, and other corporate deals. She has deep experience in drafting, negotiating, and managing contract processes for a variety of preliminary agreements. Her expertise at Foley spans industries, with a particular focus on Supply Chain, where she counsels businesses on general corporate and commercial matters, including commercial contracts.

Known for her meticulous attention to detail, Audrey plays a pivotal role in safeguarding client interests, consistently delivering practical legal solutions through clear, strategic communication. She has been instrumental in driving successful outcomes for her clients, helping them achieve their business goals with precision and efficiency.

Community Involvement

- The Marquette Volunteer Legal Clinic

Practice Areas

- Corporate
- Finance

Education

- Marquette University Law School (J.D., 2020)
 - CALI Award, Property
 - Survey & Index Editor, Marquette Sports Law Review
- University of West Florida (B.S., summa cum laude, 2017)

Admissions

- Wisconsin

- Illinois
- New York