Jana Kolarik's deep understanding and unique experience with Federal and State health care regulatory requirements, Anti-Kickback Statute risks, and Stark Law issues helps clients further safeguard their arrangements in the health care and life sciences sector.

Clients trust Jana to recommend compliance strategies to manage risk, including –

- advising on compliant compensation and ownership models,
- working with clients to address coding, coverage and payment issues affecting claims and repayment obligations,
- structuring corporate compliance effectiveness reviews and implementing compliance program changes,
- providing health care regulatory due diligence advice on transactions, and
- assisting on HHS Office of Inspector (OIG) and Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) voluntary self-disclosures.

She has also served as a Compliance Expert and Legal Independent Review Organization (IRO) for different OIG Corporate Integrity Agreements (CIAs).

Jana represents a broad range of organizations in the health care and life sciences sector, including health systems, hospitals, physician groups, durable medical equipment suppliers and device manufacturers, as well as investors in health care entities. Jana is a member of the firm's Health Care Practice Group and Government Enforcement, Defense & Investigations Practice Group.

Jana has been recognized by Chambers USA: America's Leading Business Lawyers:

"Jana is an outstanding lawyer and business partner. She is responsive and thoughtful."

“She’s very strategic, intentional and thoughtful, providing reliable advice which is always aligned with our end-goal.”
