Julia Lewis is an Associate in the Commercial Litigation practice group. Julia helps clients navigate complex legal and regulatory challenges with a focus on strategic advocacy.

Before joining Foley, Julia served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Charles R. Wilson of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit, where she researched legal questions, drafted opinions, and provided recommendations on appellate matters. While in law school, she worked with the Southern Poverty Law Center on initiatives involving economic justice, voting rights, and countering extremism and with the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Middle District of Florida on False Claims Act investigations. Julia began her career at Foley as a summer associate.
