

Victoria A. Matese

Partner

vmatese@foley.com

Washington, D.C.
202.295.4185

Tory Matese practices general corporate and business law, and regularly represents a broad range of clients on domestic and international mergers, acquisitions, private equity transactions, project finance, and general corporate and contract counseling. She is a partner in the firm's Transactional & Securities and Finance & Financial Institutions Practices and a member of the Sports, Medical Devices, and Hospitality & Leisure Industry Teams.

Tory has extensive experience counseling public and private corporations and other business entities on matters involving formation, operation, and growth. She routinely assists clients in negotiating and drafting various operational documents, including equity purchase, asset purchase and merger documents, software and technology licensing agreements, supply, manufacturing, and distribution agreements, strategic alliance and joint venture agreements, confidentiality and non-disclosure agreements, and equity incentive plans.

Awards and Recognition

- Named to DCA Live's 2018 Rising Stars of Law "40 Under 40" list
- 2015 recipient of the Children's Charities Foundation's Star for Children Award

Presentations and Publications

- Co-author, "Delaware High Court Says a Fair Deal Price Should Get the Most Weight in Appraisal Valuation," Westlaw Journal: Delaware Corporate (August 28, 2017)

Sectors

- Hospitality & Leisure
- Sports & Entertainment

Practice Areas

- Corporate
- Finance
- Transactions

Education

- Georgetown University Law Center (J.D., 2011)
 - Administrative Editor, Georgetown Journal of Law and Public Policy
 - Global teaching fellow for the Law in a Global Context Program
- Boston College (B.A., magna cum laude, 2008)
 - Major: communications
 - Phi Beta Kappa

Admissions

- District of Columbia
- Maryland