

Amy Moller

Director, Administration & Operations

amoller@foley.com

Milwaukee
414.297.4901

Amy Moller is the Director of Administration and Operations for the firm's Milwaukee office. She is responsible for local office administrative operations that include budgeting, human resources, facilities, office services, and attorney support services. Amy is an accomplished legal administrator with over 20 years of experience in law firm management and business operations.

Prior to joining Foley, she was the chief operating officer of a mid-sized law firm and was a regional vice president for a large legal services firm. Amy started her career with the U.S. Courts Second Circuit, in the office of the circuit executive. Amy is a past board president for Susan G. Komen for the Cure, San Francisco Bay Area.

Education

- University of Denver College of Law (Masters, Judicial Administration)