

Elizabeth Morales-Saucedo

Associate

elizabeth.morales@foley.com

Detroit

313.234.2716

Elizabeth Morales-Saucedo centers her practice on litigation matters and assists her clients with all aspects of civil actions in both state and federal courts.

Prior to joining Foley, she was a litigator and antitrust counsel where she frequently represented clients before the Department of Justice and Federal Trade Commission on antitrust matters.

Prior to law school, Elizabeth worked at the U.S. Department of Justice, Antitrust Division as a senior trial paralegal. She was part of two award-winning litigation teams – United States v. AB Electrolux and United States v. Deere/Monsanto/Precision Planting.

Affiliations

- Board of Trustees, The Skillman Foundation
- Member, Hispanic National Bar Association
- Member, Detroit Bar Association

Sectors

- Manufacturing

Practice Areas

- Antitrust & Competition
- Business Litigation & Dispute Resolution
- Litigation

Education

- University of Michigan Law School (J.D., 2020)
- University of Michigan (B.A., 2014)

Admissions

- Michigan
- Ohio