

Stewart R Nelson

Associate

snelson@foley.com

Salt Lake City

801.401.8905

Stewart Nelson is an associate and intellectual property attorney with Foley & Lardner LLP. Stewart is based in the firm's Salt Lake City office where he is a member of the firm's Intellectual Property Litigation Practice Group. He represents clients in complex and intellectual property litigation. Stewart is also a registered patent attorney and has previously supported patent prosecution matters. Stewart brings his technical expertise to a variety of complex patent litigation matters in numerous fields of technology. Stewart has experience advising clients on intellectual property litigation involving a broad range of technologies with a particular emphasis on computer science technology.

Languages

- Swedish

Sectors

- Innovative Technology

Practice Areas

- IP Litigation
- Intellectual Property

Education

- Brigham Young University J. Reuben Clark Law School (J.D., 2019)
- Brigham Young University (B.S., 2016)

Admissions

- US Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO)
- Utah State Bar