

Christina M. Robertson

Law Graduate

christina.robertson@foley.com

Houston

713.276.5066

Christina Robertson advises clients on corporate transactions, executive compensation, and regulatory compliance, with a strong foundation in both private practice and public interest law. She has worked on entity formation, loan documentation, and employment agreements. Christina also brings experience in art law, disability advocacy, and agricultural finance.

Previous to Foley, Christina spent time as a summer associate at a New York based law firm. She was a Staff Editor for the Journal of Intellectual Property & Entertainment Law and a Women's Leadership Fellow at NYU School of Law. Christina has been involved in organizations supporting diversity and advocacy, including the Parole Advocacy Project and Black Allied Law Students Association. She holds a J.D. from New York University School of Law and a B.A. in History from Yale University

Practice Areas

- Corporate
- Finance

Education

- New York University School of Law (J.D., 2025)
- Yale University (B.A., 2022)
 - History

Admissions

- Not admitted to practice in any state.