

Kelina Rodgers

Associate

kelina.rodgers@foley.com

Washington, D.C.

202.295.4022

Kelina Rodgers assists clients with a wide range of transactional and corporate matters. Kelina is based in Foley's Washington, D.C. office and is a member of the firm's Transactions Practice Group. She began at Foley as a summer associate in the Orlando office. While attending Georgetown University Law Center, she also worked for AdventHealth as a law clerk. Additionally, Kelina served as law clerk for the House Select Committee on Competition with China in the United States House of Representatives, where she analyzed and organized document productions for committee oversight investigations and researched and drafted memos on topics relevant to the committee.

Practice Areas

- Corporate
- Transactions

Education

- Georgetown University Law Center (J.D., 2025)
 - Business Law Scholar, Cohort 6
- Union Adventist University (B.S., summa cum laude, 2022)

Admissions

- District of Columbia