Sarina Rogers is a member of our Transactions Practice Group and is based in our San Diego office.

Sarina began at Foley as a summer associate and gained valuable insights into complex legal matters, contributing to projects that required strong analytical skills and attention to detail. Prior to law school, Sarina worked as an onsite specialist at the UC San Diego Medical Center, providing clinical surgical support. In addition to her medical background, Sarina holds a BS in Biological Psychology. Her unique background allows her to tie together clinical and technical skills to best support her clients, especially in the Health Care & Life Sciences sector.
