

Marshall W. Wallace

Associate

mwallace@foley.com

Dallas

214.999.3276

Marshall Wallace works in our Transactions Practice Group where he assists clients in a range of corporate law and transactional matters, focusing primarily on mergers and acquisitions. Prior to joining Foley & Lardner Marshall was a summer associate at Foley in the firm's Transactions Practice Group. He also served as a law clerk in a Dallas-based commercial law firm, completing transactional research on oil and gas issues and assisting with real estate transactions. He also completed legal internships with general counsels of Dallas-based companies in the health care insurance and home security spaces.

He holds Thomson Reuters (Westlaw) Certifications in advanced legal research, transactional research, litigation research, and prepare to practice research.

Practice Areas

- Corporate
- Transactions

Education

- SMU Dedman School of Law (J.D., cum laude, 2023)
 - SMU Law Review Association — Articles Editor
 - Phi Delta Phi Legal Honor Society
- Washington and Lee University (B.A., 2019)

Admissions

- Texas