Hannah E. Zaitlin's practice focuses on advising investors, health systems, physician groups, and health service providers across the health care continuum in mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, restructurings, joint ventures, and strategic affiliations. She is a partner in the firm's Health Care Transactions and Health Care Regulatory Practices.

Hannah has played a leading role in several transformational transactions for nonprofit health systems in recent years and has significant deal experience involving physician groups, physician practice management companies, post-acute care, ambulatory surgery centers, durable medical equipment (DME) providers, and telemedicine companies. Clients rely on Hannah for key health care transactions, as she brings a unique combination of experience in transactional, governance, health care regulatory, and compliance matters.

Hannah also works regularly with investors, entrepreneurs, and startup businesses in the digital health arena, particularly in the areas of telepsychiatry, behavioral health, and substance use disorder treatment. She frequently advises on innovative business models, corporate structuring, and compliance matters involving telemedicine, digital health, remote patient monitoring, and virtual care.

“Foley is the premier firm for telehealth counsel.”

“A market leader in telemedicine issues.”

“This is the Dream Team.”

The Value Foley Brings to Telemedicine Companies

Representative Experience

- Acted as lead counsel to Saint Luke's Health System (Kansas and Missouri) in its affiliation with BJC Health System (Missouri and Illinois).
- Represented health and care experience company Transcarent in acquiring AI-powered virtual care platform capabilities and the care business of 98point6 in a deal worth up to US $100m. The acquisition gave Transcarent access to 98point6's leading AI-powered virtual care technology and an affiliated medical group of providers skilled at delivering high-quality, on-demand care.
- Served as legal adviser to Thirty Madison, a leading chronic care management platform, in its strategic acquisition of assets from The Pill Club.
- Represented Advocate Aurora Health in its strategic combination with Atrium Health to create the fifth-largest nonprofit health system in the country, with US $27bn in combined revenue and 67 hospitals located in six states.
- Represented LCMC Health in connection with its acquisition of East Jefferson General Hospital, a public health system on the east bank of Jefferson Parish, Louisiana. The deal required approval by voters and the Attorney General and various other regulatory approvals.
- Represented AccentCare, Inc., a nationally recognized leader in post-acute care, in its acquisition of Southeastern Healthcare at Home through a competitive auction process. A provider of home health care, Southeastern Healthcare at Home has 16 offices in Pennsylvania and Virginia, and the transaction enabled AccentCare, Inc. to expand its footprint in the mid-Atlantic region.
- Represented Avera Health in the sale of its national telemedicine subsidiary, Avera eCare, to private equity firm Aquiline Capital Partners. Avera eCare is one of the largest and most comprehensive virtual care providers in the world — partnering with more than 600 health care systems, rural hospitals, outpatient clinics, long-term care and assisted living facilities, and schools to deliver innovative care across the country.
- Represented Edward-Elmhurst Healthcare in its merger with NorthShore University HealthSystem (NorthShore), an integrated health care delivery system based in Illinois. The transaction created one of the largest systems in the Chicagoland area, bringing together over 25,000 employees, and 9,000 physicians through a network of nine hospitals and more than 300 ambulatory facilities.
- Regulatory counsel to Numotion, the nation's leading and largest provider of products and services that provide mobility, health, and personal independence, in connection with its acquisition of SpinLife.com, the market leader in online retail Durable Medical Equipment (DME) for the aging population, as well as people living with disabilities. Numotion's acquisition of SpinLife joins two market leaders in retail and third-party reimbursed products and enables the combined company to serve more customers with a broader portfolio of products and services.
- Represented physician group in sale of ophthalmology and optical practice, as well as affiliated ASC, to a leading physician practice management company and ASC operator. The transaction was a combined asset and equity sale, which also involved negotiation of a lease for the ASC and post-closing physician employment agreements, as well as Michigan regulatory approvals.
- Represented leading national provider of home health services in joint venture transaction with regional, mobile, primary care provider platform.

- Served as regulatory counsel to InSight Telepsychiatry in its merger with Regroup Telehealth. The merger created the country's largest and most comprehensive telepsychiatry service provider in the United States, specifically with regard to the combined revenue, national footprint, diversity of client types and diversity and quantity of their provider base. The combination will allow for increased delivery of mental health services across the country in response to a nationwide shortage of specialists coupled with a rising need for behavioral health services.
- Represented large Florida-based primary care provider platform in acquisition of cornerstone physician practice in Oklahoma.
