

U.S. State Comprehensive Consumer Data Privacy Law Comparison

Prepared by Foley's Cybersecurity & Data Privacy Team

Since the passage of the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) in 2018, other U.S. states have followed suit by enacting comprehensive consumer data privacy laws in rapid succession. While these state consumer privacy laws tend to have similar themes and address comparable topics, there are also important differences among them — meaning a one-size-fits-all data privacy program will not suffice. Given that the federal government has yet to pass a comprehensive consumer data privacy law, organizations must ensure they comply with the law of each applicable state and monitor this rapidly evolving regulatory environment.

For a summary comparison of enacted state consumer data privacy laws, download Foley's U.S. State Comprehensive Consumer Data Privacy Law Comparison chart. This chart addresses state comprehensive data privacy laws enacted as of January 15, 2026, and should be used for informational purposes only because this chart does not cover every aspect of each law.

Without limitation, this chart does not cover:

- State data privacy laws specific to only a particular type of data, such as the Washington My Health My Data Act
- All entity-level or data-level exemptions
- Contents of the privacy notice
- Procedures for responding to consumer rights requests
- Specific obligations when engaging service providers or other third parties
- Compliance obligations for service providers or other third parties
- Universal opt-out requirements
- Financial incentives
- Discrimination prohibitions

29 The right to opt out of profiling is subject to future regulations. See Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.185(a)(16), (d).

30 California also requires a notice at or before the time of collection that has additional content requirements.

31 Additional regulations related to risk assessments forthcoming.

32 A business must obtain opt-in consent for processing sensitive personal information if previously limited by the consumer. See Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.120(d).

33 A business must obtain opt-in consent for processing upon entry into a financial incentive program. See Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.125(b)(3).

34 The CPA's right to access explicitly includes a consumer's right to access biometric data. See Colo. Rev. Stat. § 6-1-1314(5).

35 The CPA requires opt-in consent for the sale of sensitive data. See Colo. SB 25-26 § 20 (effective May 23, 2025); Colo. Rev. Stat. § 6-1-1308(7).

36 Colorado also requires a controller that controls or processes biometric identifiers to include a biometric identifier notice. See Colo. Rev. Stat. § 6-1-1314(2)(a)-(b), (4).

37 Controllers must additionally conduct a yearly assessment to determine whether the storage of biometric identifiers, or any personal data generated from a digital or physical photograph or an audio or video recording, is necessary and adequate. See 4 Colo. Code Regs. § 904-3, Rule 6.11.

38 The CPA requires opt-in consent for the sale of sensitive data, as well as the processing of sensitive data. See Colo. SB 25-26 § 20 (effective May 23, 2025); Colo. Rev. Stat. § 6-1-1308(7).

39 The CPA regulates "children" (under age 13) and "minors" (under age 18) differently. A controller needs consent when they actually know or willfully disregard the fact that the consumer is a minor or when using any system design feature to significantly increase, sustain, or extend the use by a consumer who the controller actually knows or willfully disregards is a minor. See 4 Colo. Code Regs. § 904-3, Rule 7.03(A)(5), (6).

40 A controller that offers any online service, product, or feature must obtain opt-in consent to process the personal data of a minor (under age 18) for: (i) the purposes of targeted advertising, sale, or profiling in furtherance of decisions that produce legal or similarly significant effects; (ii) for any processing purpose other than the processing purpose that the controller disclosed at the time the controller collected the minor's personal data or that is reasonably necessary for, and compatible with, the processing purpose that the controller disclosed at the time the controller collected the minor's personal data; or (iii) for longer than is reasonably necessary to provide the online service, product, or feature, where the controller has actual knowledge, or willfully disregards, that the consumer is a minor. See Colo. Rev. Stat. § 6-1-1308.5.

41 The CTDPA's right to access includes a consumer's right to access any inferences about the consumer derived from their personal data and whether a controller or processor is processing such personal data for the purposes of profiling. See Conn. Pub. Act. 25-113 § 8(a)(1) (effective July 1, 2026).

42 Upon request of the consumer, a controller must provide a list of third parties to whom it has sold the consumer's personal data. See id at (a)(7).

43 If a consumer's personal data was processed for the purposes of profiling, the consumer has the right to: (i) question the result of such profiling, (ii) be informed of the reason that such profiling resulted in a certain decision, (iii) review the personal data processed for the purposes of profiling, (iv) if the profiling concerned decisions related to housing, correct any incorrect personal data processed and have the decision re-evaluated. See id. at (a)(6).

44 Only for processing that presents a heightened risk of harm to a consumer. Effective July 1, 2026, this includes: (1) the processing of personal data for the purposes of targeted advertising; (2) the sale of personal data; (3) the processing of personal data for the purposes of profiling in certain cases; and (4) the processing of sensitive data. See Conn. Pub. Act. 25-113 § 11(a).

45 A business that has actual knowledge or willfully disregards a consumer is a minor under the age of 18 is prohibited from processing personal data for the purposes of targeted advertising, any sale of personal data, or profiling, unless such processing is reasonably necessary to provide an online service, product, or feature. See Conn. Pub. Act. 25-113 § 9(I).

46 A controller may not process a minor's personal data for the purposes of targeted advertising without obtaining consent. See Del. HB 154 § 12D-106(a)(7).

47 If a controller sells sensitive data or biometric data, it must provide an additional privacy notice. If a controller sells sensitive data, it must provide the following notice: "NOTICE: This website may sell your sensitive personal data." See Fla. Stat. §§ 501.711 (f)(2)-(3).

48 A controller must obtain opt-in consent upon entry into a financial incentive program. See Fla. Stat. § 501.71(2)(c).

49 The right to data portability only applies to personal data provided by the consumer. See 2023 Ind. Code 24-15-3 § 1(b)(4).

50 The right to correct only applies to personal data provided by the consumer. See 2023 Ind. Code 24-15-3 § 1(b)(2).

See id. at § 325M.14(1)(g).

57 A controller that offers an online service, product, or feature to a consumer whom the controller actually knows or willfully disregards is a minor (under age 18) may not, without consent: (i) sell the minor's data or process the minor's data for purposes of targeted advertising or profiling; (ii) process the data for any processing purpose other than the purpose disclosed at the time the controller collected the minor's personal data or that is reasonably necessary for and compatible with that processing purpose; or (iii) process the data for longer than is reasonably necessary. There are also restrictions on collecting the minor's precise geolocation. See Mont. S.B., 297, 69th Leg. § 9(2) (effective October 1, 2025).

58 A controller must obtain opt-in consent for processing personal data for the purposes of targeted advertising, or sale, under circumstances where a controller has actual knowledge or willfully disregards that the consumer is at least 13 years of age but younger than 16 years of age. See Montana Consumer Data Privacy Act, § 7(2)(d).

59 The right to data portability only applies to personal data provided by the consumer. See Nebraska Data Privacy Act, § 7(2)(d).

See N.H. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 507-H:6(I)(g).

61 A controller shall not process the personal data of a consumer for the purposes of targeted advertising, the sale of the consumer's personal data, or profiling in furtherance of decisions that produce legal or similarly significant effects concerning a consumer without the consumer's consent, under circumstances where a controller has actual knowledge, or willfully disregards, that the consumer is at least 13 years of age but younger than 17 years of age. See New Jersey Data Privacy Act, § 9(a)(7).

62 It is prohibited to sell a consumer's precise geological location data. Ore. Rev. Stat. § 646.578(2)(d)(B).

63 A controller may not sell or process the personal information of a consumer under the age of 16 for the purposes of targeted advertising or profiling in furtherance of decisions that produce legal or other significant effects. Ore. Rev. Stat. § 646A.278(2) (Updated by HB 2008-B, 2025).

65 California also requires that a business provide an acknowledgement of the consumer's request within 10 business days.

66 Under the CPRA, the definition of “sensitive personal information” includes “personal information collected and analyzed concerning a consumer’s health.” Unlike the other state consumer privacy laws, the CPRA does not distinguish between mental and physical health. See Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.140(ae)(2)(B).

67 The private right of action under the CPRA is limited to security breaches. See Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.150.

68 Under the CPRA, the cure period for administrative actions brought by the California attorney general or California Privacy Protection Agency (CPPA) is only at the CPPA's discretion. See Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.199.45. For actions brought by consumers for security breaches, there is a cure period of 30 days. See Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.150(b).

69 Note, for actions brought by consumers for security breaches, they can recover actual damages or up to US$799, whichever is greater.

70 CPA violations constitute deceptive trade practices under Colo. Rev. Stat. § 6-1-112.

⁷¹ CTDPA treats biometric data, or information derived therefrom, as sensitive information regardless of whether the purpose of the processing of the biometric data is to uniquely identify an individual. See Conn. Pub. Act. 25-113 § 5(39) (Effective July 1, 2026).

72 CTDPA violations constitute unfair trade practices under Connecticut's Unfair Trade Practice Act. See 2022 Conn. SB 6 § 11(e); Conn. Gen. Stat. § 42-110b.

73 The general right to cure violations expires on December 31, 2025. Starting on January 1, 2026, the Department of Justice may provide an ability to cure violations but is not required to.

74 Violations of the DPDPA are considered an unlawful practice under Del. Code Tit. 6 § 2513. See Del. HB § 12D-111(e).

75 Within 60 days of receiving a verifiable consumer request, a controller must provide the consumer with notice that it has complied with the consumer's request. See Fla. Stat. § 501.706(4).

76 The cure period is at the discretion of the Department of Legal Affairs and, depending on certain factors, may grant a 45-day cure period. See Fla. Stat. § 501.72(2).

77 The Department of Legal Affairs can award treble damages if a violation involves a known child, a controller fails to delete or correct a consumer's personal data after receiving a verifiable consumer request or continues to sell or share a consumer's personal data after a consumer opted out of selling or sharing. See Fla. Stat. § 501.72(1)(a)-(c).

79 Before April 1, 2027, a controller or processor will have 60 days to cure. See Md. SB 541 § 14-4614(c)(1).

80 MODPA violations constitute an unfair, abusive, or deceptive trade practice under Md. Code Ann., Com. Law § 13-410. See Md. SB 541 § 14-4613(a)(1).

81 Specific geolocation data means “information derived from technology, including but not limited to global positioning system level latitude and longitude coordinates or other mechanisms, that directly identifies the geographic coordinates of a consumer or a device linked to a consumer with an accuracy of more than three decimal degrees of latitude and longitude or the equivalent in an alternative geographic coordinate system, or a street address derived from coordinates.” See Minnesota Consumer Data Privacy Act, § 325M.11(w).

82 Before January 31, 2026, a controller or processor will have 30 days to cure. See Minnesota Consumer Data Privacy Act, § 325M.20(a).

83 Through December 31, 2025, controllers will have 60 days to cure. Beginning January 1, 2026, the attorney general may grant an opportunity to cure in accordance with a numerated list of factors. See N.H. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 507-H:11(II), (III).

84 A violation constitutes an unfair method of competition or any unfair or deceptive act or practice in the conduct of any trade or commerce under N.H. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 358-A:2.

85 For the first 18 months after the law's effective date, controllers will have a 30-day cure period.

See Or. Rev. Stat. § 646A.570(18)(a)(C).

⁸⁷ The 30-day cure period generally sunsets on January 1, 2026, except that for certain controllers that are a noncommercial educational broadcast station (as defined in 47 U.S.C. 397), the 30-day cure period sunsets July 1, 2026. See O.R. SB 1121 § 5 (2025).
