

Patrick J. Bovie

Special Counsel

patrick.bovie@foley.com

Chicago

312.832.4387

Patrick Bovie helps businesses achieve their full potential while staying compliant with current regulations. His practice is primarily focused on representing clients in complex commercial matters in state court, as well as in various modes of alternative dispute resolution. Additionally, Patrick has experience drafting various legal documents at any stage of litigation, giving him a strong understanding of the litigation process.

Patrick is based out of the firm's Chicago office, where he is a member of the Commercial Litigation Practice Group. To date, Patrick has represented Fortune 500 companies at arbitration and has secured more than fifteen million dollars on their behalf.

Presentations and Publications

- Co-author, "Civil Practice: Opening the Case 2023 Edition – Chapter 8: Original Process and Appearance," Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education (2023)

Practice Areas

- Commercial Litigation
- Litigation

Education

- Chicago-Kent College of Law (J.D., 2022)
 - Phi Alpha Delta Legal Fraternity Mock Trial Outstanding Prosecution Runner-Up, Fourth Place National Finalist
 - Dean's List (2020)
- University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign (B.A., 2019)

Admissions

- Illinois

- S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois