Elise Carter is a highly skilled attorney in Foley's Commercial Litigation practice group. She is committed to delivering exceptional support for each case she is a part of and is a trusted resource for clients and colleagues alike.

Elise is known for her strategic approach and keen attention to detail, her proficiency in legal research, and her thorough analysis of legal precedents to provide a solid foundation for clients' cases. She provides invaluable support to fellow attorneys at the firm by assisting in drafting legal briefs, pleadings, and motions that bolster the overall strength of the case.

Elise began her legal career as an appellate clerk for Justice Jill M. Pohlman, Judge Stephen Roth, and Judge Kate Appleby.
